RECOGNISING AND REWARDING EXCELLENCE IN THE TEACHING PROFESSION

Charissa Quartermain

QUEEN OF APOSTLES PRIMARY SCHOOL
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

HIGHLY COMMENDED
EXCELLENCE BY A TEACHER

Success in literacy and numeracy

Charissa Quartermain has a remarkable ability to establish rapport with children and partnerships with their families, building a supportive learning community with a climate of mutual respect.

She is an outstanding practitioner who has enabled students of all abilities to experience success in literacy and numeracy through her inspiring learning programs, including the creative use of interactive whiteboards. Her exemplary teaching practices have achieved high student performance in literacy and numeracy.

Charissa is a natural leader with a passion for professional growth, whose guidance and mentoring of colleagues at her own school and at a remote school in the Kimberley region of Western Australia have had a profound impact on teaching and learning success.
