

Update to Assessment for Migration webpages and application forms

25 July 2017

On 25 July 2017 AITSL launched a new website. To coincide with this launch Assessment for Migration has improved our web pages and updated our application forms.

The updated forms include information to assist applicants in preparing their application.

New features include refreshed assessment criteria language to improve clarity. There has been no change to the requirements of criteria.

There are two changes for submitting an application:

1. A photograph of the applicant is no longer required.
2. Colour copies of documents are now required
