

11/12/19.

The council planners observed from their compound the mountains on the boundary of their town. They were astounded to see a large sow prowling through dirt on the ground.

