

Migration of Teacher Registration between jurisdictions needs to be better advertised, more transparent and have a simplified process.

While it may be beyond the scope of this review it would be of benefit to teachers who move part way through a year to be able to register with a reduced fee in a new jurisdiction if they are already registered in another jurisdiction.